SEARCHING FOR THE DEAD

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE BUFFALO HOLOCAUST.

The Actual Number of Dead Unknown, but Believed to be Less Than at First Reported—List of the Dead and Injured, So Far as Learned—Graphic Descriptions.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 21.—Little can be added to that already known of the result of the disastrous Richmond hotel fire. To the question of "How many are killed?" only an indefinite reply can be made. The number actually known to be dead and missing is nine, but ten more of the survivors now lodged at the hospitals and at their homes must be looked upon as precarious, and time only will decide whether they are to be numbered with the living or the dead.

The surviving victims, whose names follow in the hospital list, are more or less prostrated by the shock of the disaster, from which some will rally who have vigorous constitutions. But could one see the sufferers swathed in lint and cotton bandages, moaning with the intense agony of their scorched and calcined flesh, he would number the horrors of the fire at a greater total than the death list. Every one who was burned by the intense heat, if his skin was not actually licked by the flames, has suffered by exposure to the air after the burning. Before the physicians could dress the wounds they had begun to swell and blister, and in all cases suppuration is feared while in many it is inevitable. Some will lose the flesh from their hands and feet, and amputation will be unavoidable. If pyæmia does not ensue it will be miraculous.

The critical condition of many victims is therefore alarming and despite the most careful nursing and painstaking surgical attendance several of the hospital patients, it is feared, will die. At present writing it is impossible to gauge the fatality of the holocaust, but if no more than twenty it can be hardly less than twelve.

The following are the known dead: Wilson Purcell, a resident broker, formerly with R. G. Dun & Company, was killed by jumping; belongs in Canada. Kate Wolfe, a servant at the Richmond, was found in the ruins of the frame structure destroyed.

Henry B. Runsey, of New York, died at 1:40 o'clock at the Fifth Avenue hospital. He was terribly burned, his body being blistered from head to foot. He would have escaped with slight injuries had he not gone back to save little Jennie Mann.

The list of missing, who are believed to have perished are as follows:

Mark B. Osborne, day clerk at the Richmond. He is supposed to have perished while trying to save the other employees who slept on the upper floors.

Katie Kent, a servant. Mary Welch, a servant. Her cousin, now at the general hospital, says she saw Mary jump, and that was all.

J. B. Becker, a Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad official, of Scranton. He was expected to arrive in this city on Thursday. Mail was received for him at the Richmond, where he was to stop. It is not known whether he registered there or not. A telegram to his home at Scranton elicited the information that he was not there. He may possibly have not reached the city. Otherwise he cannot be accounted for.

Minnie Kelly, a servant. Inquiries at different places in the city have been made in regard to her, but without avail. She probably is lost.

Mr. Johnson, of Toronto, a railroad man, was reported as missing, but his name was removed from the list, as there was some doubt of his being in the hotel. It is now believed he was there.

Joseph Sayre, of Erie, Pa.; J. C. Pratt, of Albany. The last named was known to have been at the Richmond, and has not been heard from since the fire.

The following are those at the hospitals and their condition:

At the Sisters hospital: Mary Nolan, servant, badly burned about face, feet, hands and one leg and a portion of the other, and hair burned to scalp. Very critical.

Maggie Mulrach, servant, face, neck and breast burned, arms scorched from shoulder to finger tips, legs burned from knees to soles of feet. A serious case.

Fanny Harvey, a servant, burned about face, hands and feet. Not serious as others, but very painful.

G. F. Michaels, commercial traveler for wholesale furniture house in New York. Ankle sprained and bad contusion of back, caused by fall. Not serious.

At the general hospital are: Nellie Welch, servant, burned about face and hands, not serious.

Minnie Neller, servant, burned face and hands, not serious.

Mrs. Kate Price, servant, most badly burned of the three. Condition serious.

Clinton Bidwell, resident agent for the Dupont Powder company, regular boarder at hotel. Quite seriously burned about face, neck, hands and arm; badly prostrated by shock. Considered serious.

Matthew Shannon, house-man at the Richmond, hands badly burned; also face and head slightly, not serious.

Fitch Accident hospital: Frederick K. Moore, of Cleveland, severely burned about face, hands and feet. Serious.

William A. Haven, of Helena, Mont., chief engineer of the Northern Pacific, burned about face, hands and feet, and suffering from shock. Serious.

Edwin A. Finch, of Scranton, Pa., suffering from painful burns about feet, hands and face.

C. M. Dubois, general agent of Commercial Insurance company, of Syracuse, severely burned over almost whole body, and he is in a critical condition.

Jacob Kahn, of Kahn & Son, wholesale dry goods merchants of New York, spine fractured by fall, also burned about the extremities. Will probably die. His wife has been sent for.

Mary Witt, Mrs. Stafford's maid, painfully burned on arm and face, but not serious.

Emergency hospital: Barry Davis, corner of Canal and Green streets, New York, seriously burned. Will lose one foot, if not his life.

Edward Whelan, traveling salesman, of Newburgh, N. Y., badly bruised by fall, fingers burned off and feet and ankles burned to bone. His life hangs by a thread.

H. B. Smith, insurance adjuster, Syracuse, painfully burned on legs, feet and hands.

William J. Mackay, insurance agent of Niagara Falls, injured by fall, not serious.

The following were taken home:

Mary Connors, servant, severely bruised by a fall and badly burned. Serious.

Mrs. W. J. Mann, wife of one of the proprietors, severely injured.

F. H. Woods, of Chicago, badly singed about the face, left for home yesterday.

C. L. Boggs, of New York, is badly burned.

Mr. Dahlman, of Rochester, is probably fatally injured.

A. Merriam, resident boarder, a broker, seriously burned on the face and head.

Mr. E. N. Wimpiner, and wife, of New York, had a narrow escape. Said he: "My wife woke me up, hearing heard the alarm bell, and asked what it meant. It didn't take long to find out. Soon we heard the shrieking cries of fire, and springing out of bed we rushed down stairs to the parlor floor. The main stairway was in flames, and we fled into a room fronting on Main street. Fortunately it had a balcony window, and we climbed out on it. I decided to jump, and taking my wife in my arms, I did so. We were only slightly bruised by the fall. I had on only my trousers and night clothes. I lost $500, and my wife lost some valuable diamonds." They were cared for at the Mansion house.

Mr. J. M. Van Norman, photographer, living in the wooden building on Main street, said that his family would have been burned up but for the fire alarm arousing them. A man jumped on his roof and entered his room. Soon another man jumped. They were considerably injured, one being unable to walk. They were let out of the front door. "I am positive," said Mr. Van Norman, "that I saw at least three people go through the skylight in the rear of my rooms who never stirred afterward. The bodies will be found in the ruins."

Another missing man is — Benedict, brother of Hiram Benedict, of the Buffalo Lubricating Oil company. He arrived here Thursday night and intended stopping at the Richmond. It is thought he came in late and was given a room in the upper story and perished in the flames. A friend here wired Benedict's family but they had heard nothing of his whereabouts. A message received from Lockport says his family have given him up for lost.

Mr. Robert H. Stafford, the senior proprietor of the hotel, gives the following account of the origin and progress of the fire, as related to him by his employees. Said he: "As to the origin of the fire, all I can give is from my night man; that is, that the fire started in the cloak-room. There were two pails of water on a shelf on each floor of the elevators, which they used on the fire at the start, but it did not have the effect of putting it out. There was attached one hundred feet of hose. The statement that the water would not run is erroneous. The hose would throw water fifty feet above the building. The fire was so near the elevator that it was impossible to use one hundred feet of hose without getting kinks in it, and it was those kinks, in my opinion, that prevented the flow of water, for when night-clerk Alphonse found that the hose would not work, he pulled the fire alarm system of bells which connected with every room in the house. He then rang in alarm to headquarters. While the fire was progressing, guests were making their escape, and many came down the stairways. We supposed we had the most perfect arrangement in the case of fire, and I think that the Richmond was as safe as any hotel not built fire-proof."

Mr. Stafford strongly condemned the net work of wires that surrounded the hotel which he says prevented the ladders from saving a great many from the windows, who were otherwise forced to flee through the flames. The Evening News says: "The story of ruin and desolation needs only the later details to make the thrilling chapter complete. Eight persons were killed. Twenty-five were seriously injured. Fifteen were slightly hurt. The ruins have not at this writing been searched. What hidden stories of additional misery and loss of life those piles of smoking debris will reveal no human intelligence can foresee. The shaky walls will be thrown down as soon as possible and then the search will begin."

Mr. Louis Zandman, of 29 Lispenard street, New York, one of the survivors, states that when he left his room there were seven persons in it, and all he saw escape was one man and one woman. It is his belief that the others lost their lives. The body of Henry B. Runsey, of New York, who died at the hospital this morning, was given in charge of his brother-in-law, E. C. Edgerton, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and a friend, Edwin Mead, Jr., of New York. The deceased was forty-seven years of age and connected with the United States navy. His wife and daughter reside at Fort Wayne, Ind., where the remains will be taken. He has a son in the United States navy.

The police are investigating the startling report of a fiendish attempt to burn the Williams block at Virginia and Oak streets, occupied by a dozen different families. It now appears that one of the occupants sent her daughter into the cellar to get a pail of coal oil to burn the smell of smoke, and proceeding to the coal bin, found a pile of kindling wood, partly saturated with kerosene, blazing rather briskly among the coals. She, with other children who accompanied her, succeeded in putting out the fire, burning their hands quite severely in doing so. The material had apparently been arranged and set on fire by an incendiary who could only have committed the deed a few moments before the discovery. There are other rumors of similar incendiary attempts but so far have not been traced to reliable sources.

About a dozen now are at work searching among the hotel ruins for bodies, but none have been found since that supposed to be Osborne. Additional men will be put to work. The last body found in the ruins was taken from the site occupied by Ulrich & Kingsley's store, about twenty five feet from the front. The remains consisted of a blackened and charred trunk, burned past identification, the jaw being the only part of the head found. A portion of the trousers and under clothing was found by which it is hoped to identify the remains.

Little Jennie Mann, daughter of one of the hotel proprietors, is reported very low and it is feared she may not recover.

Mrs. Mann, who was severely burned, is doing well.

Mr. Arthur Perry, of Welland, Ont., has arrived in the city, looking for his brother, who has not been heard of since the fire. It is thought his remains are in the ruins.

A project is on foot here for the erection upon the site of the burned Richmond hotel and St. James hall of a fire proof hotel and a fire proof theater by a popular stock company with a capital of about $500,000. The project appears to find favor among business men and a general meeting will be called at an early date to take action.

LATEST FROM PANAMA.

Men Murdered to Prevent Them From Voting—Cholera Ravages—Personal.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Advices from Panama to March 9 say that according to the Sol de Abril, a Venezuelan paper, in six districts there honorable men have been murdered to prevent them from voting with the Liberal party, and making manifestations against the policy of Guzman Blanco and his party.

On December 26 the first case of cholera was reported in Chilli. On January 7 the disease was busy in Catene and Chagres and within a few days was playing havoc along the whole course of the Aconcagua river. L'Ocampo, a small town, ten to twenty deaths were occurring daily, and the people became so alarmed that they finally abandoned the place.

Costly Canadian Collision.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 21.—Early this morning the Canadian Pacific express for Toronto ran into a freight train standing on the main line near Stittsville. The express crashed into the rear car of the freight, and the vitriol which the car contained was ignited. The fire spread rapidly in all directions, and ten cars of the freight, together with their contents, were consumed. The engine of the express was totally wrecked, and the consumable portions of it were burned. The fire spread to the tender and the first car of the express before a relief engine could be got to draw off the other cars. Fortunately there was no loss of life.

Three Lives Lost.

WINFIELD, L. I., March 21.—The steamer Idlewild collided with the schooner A. W. Thompson off here this morning. The schooner was sunk and three lives were lost. The collision occurred at 10:30 o'clock. The captain of the schooner was picked up by the Idlewild with his head split completely open. The captain of the ill-fated schooner can not live. None of the names of the crew can be ascertained, as the boat that put out from here to the rescue failed to reach the Idlewild before she started for New York.

Illinois Miners' Troubles.

PEORIA, Ill., March 21.—Last week the coal operators in the local mining district imported a colony of negroes from Grape Creek, Ill., to take the places of white striking miners. Friday the negroes in turn struck for the same advance wanted by the white men. Before doing so they got a month's supply of provisions from the operators, and are fully equipped for a long siege. The white miners are now indulging in the laugh at the expense of the operators.

Sad Death of an Absconder's Wife.

AKRON, O., March 21.—The wife of William Weise, the wife of the prominent German of this city who absconded to Canada, a few weeks ago with several hundred dollars of borrowed money and the Lutheran church funds, died to-day of grief and childbirth. Simultaneously with her death, and too late for the poor wife to know it, word came from Weise ordering the sale of his Akron home to make restitution for his defalcation and also money for his wife.

Explosion in an Oil Works.

BALTIMORE, March 21.—An explosion took place in one of the stills at the Baltimore United Oil company's works at the corner of Second street and Second avenue, Canton, to-day. Jacob Hossman, aged fifty years, was killed outright, and Edward Rollington received fatal injuries. Two others, Peter Connors and Christopher Kurtz were dangerously hurt. They were taken to the hospital. Three or four others were slightly injured.

May Porter a Maui.

SANDESKY, O., March 21.—May Porter the mother of the illegitimate child that was murdered here in December last by Jerry Fahey, of Berea, who threw the babe in the bay, is a raving maniac. She began to break down both mentally and physically while the trial of Fahey was in progress and the day he was sentenced to the penitentiary for life she became violently insane.

Killed on the Louisville & Nashville.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 21.—Sherman Kraft, a brakeman, was discovered in an unconscious condition yesterday afternoon with his head badly mashed and his arm under a wheel of a freight car at the end of the Louisville & Nashville tracks at the foot of Fifth avenue. It is supposed that while asleep the car slipped down upon him. He is still alive but cannot recover.

The N. Y. P. & O. Brakemen Will Return.

YOUNGSTOWN, March 21.—The N. Y. P. & O. brakemen held a conference to-day, and it is believed that they resolved to return to work. Many of them think the strike was ill advised. It is understood that the majority of them will be reinstated, and that trains will be running as usual inside of twenty-four hours. The strikers gave a ball that was largely attended last night.

Praying for Rain in Texas.

ABILENE, Tex., March 21.—The continued drought in this section, which almost ruined the farmers in 1886, and which bids fair to finish the job in 1887, is beginning to have a marked effect upon the public. Meetings are being held at the different churches in the city to pray for rain, such meetings being held generally throughout the surrounding country.

Seeking an Expert Opinion.

"Are you an actor?" asked a lanky looking man, addressing a Rialto habitue. "I am, sir," was the reply; "arr-o you looking for talent?" "Not exactly, but I want to ask you what kind of wood, in your opinion, makes the best railroad ties?"—New York Sun.

WASHINGTON DISPATCHES

CONFLICTING REPORTS OF EX-SENATOR THURMAN'S MISSION.

He Claims That His Visit to the White House Was Only a Friendly Call on the President—Three of the Interstate Commissioners Appointed—Other Notes.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The presence at the National capital of ex-Senator Thurman, and his visit to the White House caused much speculation here. A reporter, who found the judge at the Ebbitt house, was refused a formal interview, but in the course of conversation the veteran statesman said: "I have not been summoned here at all, and have come upon no political mission whatever. My coming was upon a law matter, which was easily transacted, and I leave for home at once. I called at the White House because it was the semi-centennial birthday of Mr. Cleveland. I like Mr. Cleveland. He is an honest and capable man."

When it was stated to him that pending the senate's action on the Pacific railway investigation resolution, Senator Hoar had expressed the wish that ex-Justice Strong, ex-Justice Campbell and himself should be selected as the three inquirers, he laughed heartily and said: "Why, he favors old fogies, doesn't he? Campbell is seventy-nine, Strong seventy-six, and I am the youth of the trio at seventy-five."

Incidentally he expressed the opinion that the limitation concluding the commission next December rendered even a good start at the work impossible. As to the composition of the interstate commission he knew nothing beyond what he had read in the newspapers, but presumed that Col. Morrison would be a member.

Turkey Prohibits Silver Circulation.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary of State Bayard is in receipt of a dispatch from Mr. Pendleton King, charge d'affaires ad interim at Constantinople, dated February 18, stating that in order to give additional effect to its measure relative to the circulation of foreign silver coins in the empire, the government of Turkey will absolutely prohibit, on and after April 13, 1887, all foreign silver coins from entering any of its custom houses or postoffices. All such coins will be returned to the place whence they came, unless fraudulently entering, when they will be confiscated.

Three of the Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The gossip here it that the president has decided to appoint Hon. William R. Morrison, of Illinois (Democrat); Judge Cooley, of Michigan (Republican); and Judge Bragg, of Alabama (Democrat), members of the interstate commerce commission. It is stated at the White House that the president will be obliged to postpone the interstate commerce appointments until next week, as he has not been able to reach final conclusions in reference to two of the commissionerships. It is his purpose to give the subject constant attention until it is finally disposed of.

The President Needs Judge Thurman.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says that despite Judge Thurman's denial of the report that he had been tendered an appointment by the president, there is reason to believe that President Cleveland would be glad to obtain Judge Thurman's services in the Pacific railroads investigation and his advice as to the composition of the commission.

Secretary Endpoints Back at Work.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The secretary of war has returned to Washington from Boston and resumed his official duties at the department this morning.

Why He Indorsed McGlynn.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Rev. Dr. Curran who made a brief speech to the Irish societies at Jones' Wood on St. Patrick's Day, practically endorsing Dr. McGlynn's land theories, when asked to-day if he had been correctly reported, said: "Why should I not endorse them? They have not been condemned by the church and the holy father himself said so. None long since the pope directed Cardinal Gibbons to say for him to Dr. McGlynn that he saw nothing so far in the land theories advanced by Dr. McGlynn that was contrary to Catholic teaching. Cardinal Gibbons has communicated this expression of opinion of the holy father to Dr. McGlynn."

New Brunswick Assignment.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 21.—It is rumored that the St. John Building society has gone under, the cause being the Maritime bank failure, with which the society had its account. The president of the society has overdrawn its account $20,000, but that it had $30,000 of the society's collateral as security. The society had real estate, also valued at over $90,000 and $58,000, and between $90,000 and $80,000, which could not be realized upon at once. There was ample to pay all if time were allowed.

Bloody Work of a Drunken Corporal.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 21.—Friday at Cadereyta, Jiminez, a corporal of the second cavalry, got drunk on Marhuana, or Indian hemp, and taking his carbine and forty cartridges ambushed himself near the barracks and began potting off the soldiers and officers of his command. After a rather successful afternoon's sport, in which he bagged three men killed and five wounded, the troops, finding it impossible to capture him, managed to kill him.

"Shaking Dice."

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 21.—"Lem" Hineley, proprietor of the Mining exchange, and John Featherstone, a well known saloon keeper, shook dice Thursday night, and when they got through Hineley had lost all his cash and $250 shares of Crown Point Mining stock, worth $6,450. To-day he had Featherstone arrested in an attempt to recover his stock, but the authorities were unable to compel its return.

Acton and the Strangler.

CHICAGO, March 21.—"Demon" Acton and "Strangler" Lewis have patched up their recent quarrels and concluded to again meet at Battery D, catch-as-catch-can, best three falls in five, three points to constitute a fall, for $500 a side and gate receipts. The match is arranged for April 11.

The actual expense of maintaining each inmate of the Adams County (Ohio) infirmary the past year amounted to but thirteen cents a day—a total of $2,125 for the cost of the institution.

There are five States in the Union which now prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. The list stands a chance of being increased ere long as five other States will vote on the question some time this year.

THREE-FIFTHS of all the axe-handles used in this country are said to be made at Louisville. This speaks well for the Falls City, as far as the axe-handle business is concerned. We might add that this is not the only industry in which Kentucky's metropolis leads.

HON. W. J. CHINN has resigned as a member of the State Board of Equalization from the Seventh Congressional district, and James W. Roberts, of Henry, has been appointed to fill the vacancy. The new member is said to be a man of "sound judgment"—just the kind needed.

The party who invests his money in Eastern Kentucky now will reap rich profits at no distant day. A big increase in the value of real estate has already taken place in one county, we have heard of. We think we are safe in saying that land in Eastern Kentucky is cheaper now by a long shot, than it will be a year hence.

We want it distinctly understood that we are not agitating the natural gas question in the interest of any one. Every body is talking about "booms," and we believe that the discovery of natural gas in or near here would stir up Mayville as nothing else would. It would give us a genuine "boom." We are agitating the matter in the interest of the town and not in the interest of any individual, or set of individuals.

REPRESENTATIVE NESBITT, of Owingsville, says the race for Governor is very much mixed in Bath County. Senator Harris has the largest following, made up in the main of farmers. The politicians, as a rule, are for Judge Hines, and the rebel-soldier element is very strong for General Buckner. Mr. Nesbitt's opinion is that the Buckner and Hines men will combine, and, if they do, the county's delegates will be instructed to vote for Hines first and Buckner second, shutting Harris out.

It has not been a great while since natural gas was discovered at Findlay, O., but in that time over $250,000 of Cincinnati capital has been invested in Findlay real estate and manufactories, according to a statement in the Enquirer. The discovery of natural gas here would not only greatly enhance the value of all our property but it would attract thousands of dollars from other places. Really, when the benefits and advantages are considered, we can not see why there should be any trouble in securing the subscriptions necessary to test the matter. Where all are to be benefited, all should contribute, a little at least.

The half has not been told of the undeveloped wealth of Eastern Kentucky. The richest coal fields in the United States are to be found in that region. The fields embrace an area of about ten thousand square miles. In Wolfe County veins of fine bituminous coal, four feet in thickness, have recently been opened. But little of this vast wealth, however, has yet been developed. We predict that a few years, though, will see a wonderful change in that region. All that is needed is the railroad, and the fact that so many enterprises of that character are aiming for the "mountain counties," is evidence that the attention of capitalists has at last been secured.

A COMPANY was formed not long since at Muncie, Ind., to bore for natural gas. The undertaking was successful, and a big field was struck. The stock of the company had been issued at a par value of one hundred dollars, and we are told that shares sold at nine hundred dollars shortly after the gas was struck. We mention this in connection with the natural gas question here, so that those of our citizens of a speculative turn of mind may have some idea of what they might make by investing a few hundred dollars in the undertaking. It would be only a small sum lost if gas was not found. But there might be "millions in it," comparatively speaking, if a big field was struck. And then the boom that such a discovery would give our city.

Continuous Schools and Continued Teachers.

(Communicated.)

We want to enter our solemn protest against districts closing the doors of the school-house when the term paid for by the State is finished. And the reason for this protest will be found in the following consideration of the subject: First the teacher who has taught the public school must be dismissed and his methods of teaching lost on the minds of the pupils before another session begins; and then a new teacher with different methods being introduced into the school, the former methods are forgotten or only remembered to an extent that will cause a collision between the ideas of the new teacher and the pupils.

Secondly: Both physiology and common sense demonstrate that the blood is determined to that part of the body which is under constant exercise. Ask the blacksmith why his right arm is more strong and powerful, its muscles more fully developed, and he will answer, "I use that arm constantly in hammering the iron." Ask the observant teacher why his pupils learn faster and easier during the latter part of his term of five months, and he, too, will say, the minds of his pupils are more active now because of the continued use of them has determined the blood to the brain.

Again, why is it that continued exertion in one direction, using only one member of the body, produces over development of that limb and a relative decline in the other members? Manifestly, the blood, the mason and mechanic of the body, is using more of his energy and material in one direction. For this reason calisthenics has been introduced into our institutions of learning, having sessions continuing from year to year.

We argue that the common school session is too short, because the pupils only begin to take an interest in study after they become acquainted with the teacher and his methods, and after they have used their minds long enough to turn the blood to the brain. The session should be continued at least eight months. The four remaining months will give plenty of time for the physical development of the child, especially when the every day sports of the common school are made auxiliary to the same development.

The session of the school is too short, and the school life of the pupil too long. Pupils should not be sent to school until they are eight years old and then they should be kept there nine months per year until they graduate, unless ill health prevents. If this course were pursued, we would have more thorough scholars, and fewer illiterates in Kentucky. We do not mean to say that no development of the mind should be begun until a child is eight years old, but we do mean to say that mothers should not expect the public school to take the place of the nursery. The antics of the baby pupil is not near so likely to disturb the cogitation of a class in mathematics, if he is at home. Mammies, who seem disposed to shirk their responsibilities and saddle their troubles on the public school teachers by sending the children to school just to get rid of them, should cease to growl when their darlings stand corrected.

If you want a successful school, a rapid development of knowledge in your pupils, hire a competent teacher and keep him; continue your school to nine months per year, and keep your baby at home and teach him to read before you send him to school at all. But, if you are determined that the little fellow shall go to school, read what I shall have to say in regard to graded schools, in a future article. Respectfully, A TEACHER.

Hocking Valley Coal Operators.

CLEVELAND, O., March 21.—The coal operators of the Pittsburgh and Hocking valley districts, who are in conference there, reported a trade of 2,000,000 tons of soft coal distributed from Lake Erie points. They have agreed upon a differential rate of twenty-five cents, the Pittsburgh coal to sell at that much higher, provided the railways will equalize tariffs. A committee was appointed to labor with the railway companies. Last year Hocking valley averaged about $1.85 free on board. It is proposed to make it $2.15 or $2.25 this season. The operators claim that the railways, making the interstate commerce law an excuse, propose to take in freight all the advance in coal the improved market will stand, while this conference inserts an equitable division between producer, transporter and seller. The prospect is that consumers in the northwest will have to pay $1 a ton above last year's prices.

Smallpox in Los Angeles.

New York, March 21.—A dispatch from San Francisco to the Herald quotes Dr. Simpson, of the state board of health, who has just returned from Los Angeles, as saying that the situation there in regard to the smallpox scourge is serious, and likely to grow worse. Four weeks ago there was but a single case, which undoubtedly came from Mexico, but between now and then the number is admitted to have increased to forty, and there have been several deaths. At present there are thirteen patients in the hospital and fifteen houses under quarantine. No cases have occurred among tourists so far, the local population being the sufferers. Cases are also reported in adjoining towns. It is the intention of the state board to place inspectors at different stations so that passengers from Los Angeles by either steamer or rail will have to pass under proper surveillance.

Fatal Saw Mill Explosion.

VAN WERT, O., March 21.—The boiler in O. H. Pensier's saw mill exploded Friday and killed two persons. There was a strike in the mill, and a volunteer gang of hands were getting out lumber to fill a contract. The mill is now almost a total wreck. The hands were loading a car, and escaped injury, but Sam Miller, a stove-bolt maker, and Frank Burtfield, a school teacher, were in the building and were instantly killed. The top of Miller's head was blown off, and he was mutilated beyond recognition. He leaves a family. Burtfield's skull was crushed, his arms and legs were broken and he was otherwise mangled.

Long Reprieve for the Anarchists.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 21.—Arguments in the Anarchists' case were concluded. It is not expected the supreme court will render a decision before a month or six weeks. If the sentence is affirmed the supreme court will set the day of execution when the court meets again, next September. In case of a reversal and a new trial the decision will be rendered probably within a week. In either case there is no danger that the Anarchists will be hanged before October.

Boycotting Railroads.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Forty representatives of manufacturers of this city have organized an association for the purpose of resisting the railroads for the advancement in the mileage of commercial travelers. They talk of selecting one eastern and one western road to do their business and boycotting all the rest.

Died from Lockjaw.

CINCINNATI, March 21.—Robert Sullivan, aged thirty-five, woodworker for Marty & Knoblauch, residing at 506 State street, died at his home yesterday morning from lockjaw, resulted from injuries received by being struck by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton train a week ago Thursday.

Cupid Drowned by a Dam.

A young man who lives over on the north side was telling some of his cronies one night last week how his engagement with a certain belle of Pine street happened to come to an end.

"I was very fond of her," he said, and thought her as sweet and pretty a woman as I ever saw. But you chaps know I am a little squeamish about some things. An unpleasant thing to look at affects me a great deal, you know. In fact, I have a weakness in that direction, but I can't help it. Say, did any of you chaps ever have a dentist's dam put into your mouth? No! Well, then you can't appreciate my feelings. One day I dropped into a dentist's office over on State street, and there was my affianced sitting in the dentist's chair with the dentist's dam in her mouth. If she had seen me she would have had hysterics. I saw her, and came near having them myself.

"So you don't know what a dentist's dam is! Well, it's a rubber contrivance they put in your mouth. They fasten it under your chin so that it is drawn down over your lips, tongue and gums. They punch a little hole in it, and let the tooth they want to operate on stick up through the hole. The effect on the appearance of the subject is something awful. A woman is never pretty when her mouth is wide open and a dentist's fingers are trying to open it a little wider. But the dam adds a hideousness of which you can form no idea until you see one at its horrid work. One glance at the poor girl with that thing in her mouth took all my love for her away. 'Pon my word, I had to go home that day with a raging headache, all on account of that awful dam, but before night I wrote her a note stating that circumstances over which I had no control compelled me to break the engagement. It was a decidedly unpleasant thing to do, chaps, but I couldn't help it, you know."—Chicago Herald.

Consumption Among the Indians.

Of the present destroyers of the Indians, according to Dr. Washington Matthews, the chief is consumption. Census returns show that, while the death rate among Europeans is 17.74 per thousand, and that among Africans is 17.28, the rate among the Indians is no less than 23.6; and that, while among the whites 166 deaths in the thousand are from consumption, and among the negroes 186, there are 286 among the Indians. The influence of civilization has greatly increased the consumption rate among the Indians—the effect seeming to be partly due to change of diet, and partly to causes not yet understood. —Arkansas Traveler.

Long Names.

The name of the secretary of the interior is Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, A. M., LL.D., while he has a clerk under him, a colored man, whose father christened him Washington Jefferson Lincoln Gerritt Smith Jones. There is another colored man, working in a Washington barber shop, whose title is Farragut Dahlgren Foote Porter Hopkins, in honor of the several naval commanders under whom he served in the navy during the war.—Boston Globe.

THE rule requiring passengers to pay ten cents in addition to regular fare, where they get on the trains without a ticket, is being rigidly enforced on the Kentucky Central. A merchant of Butler, Ky., was put off the train twice in the past week for refusal to comply with the law.

IN Morgan County, the other day, Mahala Wells and Kalah Wells were married to Robert Lee Caudell and John T. Caudell. The brides are twin sisters and the grooms are twin brothers, and the two couples were married by one ceremony. That was what might be called a double wedding all around.

Wensel's Wind-up at Owenton.

Harry Wensel, who carried on a barber shop here a few years ago, has taken unceremonious leave of his friends at Owenton, Ky. He removed to that place a few months ago, and opened out a shaving saloon in the Exchange Hotel. On the 15th inst., he left for parts unknown. The Democrat says: "Although he had been here but a short time, he succeeded in 'pulling the wool' over the eyes of the boys and gained their confidence to the extent of about $100. He hired a horse and buggy at a late hour of the night, and made connection with the 5 o'clock express at Sparta. He had on T. C. Hill's overcoat, carried his plant tied up in a red handkerchief, and possessed a memory burning with the recollection of 'circumstances over which he had no control,' rushing him hurriedly on. He left the following note to the proprietors of the Exchange whom he duped for $50: 'Kind Sir: I regret very much the way I am compelled to leave you, but circumstances that I cannot now control compel me to go. Pack up everything in my room and I will soon send you the money. Everything there belongs to my beloved little wife, who I never expect to see again. Yours, etc., HARRY. 'Mrs. Hill: Please pack and send the marriage certificate hanging on the wall, to my wife at Maysville, Ky., for her to remember me when I am gone. Thanking you for kindnesses, I am yours, H. W. 'P. S.—Do this through love for Mrs. Wensel and not me. I could not ask a favor. 'Mrs. Wensel was to all appearances a nice lady, and on several occasions spoke of her disapproval of the life her husband was leading. Wensel sold whisky in open violation, and drank too freely himself, and she expected him to fall into the clutches of the law, and then the bare support he was making would be denied her.'"

His wife and child have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Paul, in this city. She knew nothing of her husband's actions until Friday night, when she received a letter from him asking forgiveness for the way he had conducted himself, and intimating that a personal in the Cincinnati Enquirer would reach him. In a conversation with her parents this morning, they said Wensel had always been a fond and devoted husband, but that a passion for cards seemed to rule him, and was the cause of all his trouble.

MOSE DAULTON & BRO.

A MIDGET girl baby that was born to the wife of Joseph Ackerman, near Carlisle, about one week ago is attracting crowds of people daily. A despatch says it "weighs only twenty-four ounces, with a head not as large as a hen egg. The child is an indigo blue, and is covered with short black hair from head to foot."

PRISMATIC colors and scattered rays, common to other spectacles, are by the scientific principles of their construction entirely avoided in the Diamond. Being perfectly free from deleterious substances, they never tire the eye, and can be used with comfort and satisfaction equally by lamp, gaslight or daylight. For sale by Ballenger, jeweler.

THE Stetson "Neck and Neck" company gave no performance at the opera house Saturday night. One of the male members of the company—the "villain"—was taken seriously ill shortly before the time for the entertainment to commence. Dr. H. K. Adamson was summoned, and was able to report an improvement in his patient at a late hour. The company went to Ironton from here.

"Yes; I shall break the engagement," she said, folding her arms and looking defiant; "it is really too much trouble to converse with him; he's as deaf as a post, and talks like he had a mouthful of mush. Besides, the way he hawks and spits is disgusting." "Don't break the engagement for that; tell him to take Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy. It will cure him completely." "Well, I'll tell him. I do hate to break it off, for in all other respects he's quite too charming." Of course it cured his catarrh.

THE pastor and officers of the M. E. Church, South, are agitating the question of erecting a handsome edifice to take the place of the old building in which that branch of the M. E. Church has worshiped for years. The matter was discussed last year, but nothing was done. A new church, it seems, is only a question of time, and it will soon be definitely settled whether the tearing down and rebuilding shall be done this year. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Harry Wadsworth, James F. Robinson, G. W. Geisel and W. W. Ball, are to begin soliciting subscriptions this week, and it is to be hoped the undertaking will prove successful. We believe Maysville already outranks all other cities in the State of her size and population in the matter of handsome churches, but there is still room for improvement. The Baptists are already engaged on their new edifice, and the Catholics will erect a handsome church in the early future. The M. E. Church, South, should keep pace with her sister churches.

Man's Wants.

THE St. Helens' Land, Coal and Iron Company has been incorporated at Frankfort with a capital stock of $1,000,000 to develop 12,000 acres of coal and timber land, in Lee County. It is to be hoped that this is only the forerunner of others.

THE Louisville Times says: "The projected meeting at the First Christian Church is still in progress, and the interest increasing every night. Rev. E. L. Powell is a bold and fearless speaker, holding the attention of his audience throughout his sermons."

THE first number of the Dry Goods Herald made its appearance last Saturday. Mr. M. B. McKrell, the Sutton street merchant, is "editor and sole owner." It is well illustrated, and is evidently edited by a gentleman who has served a "faithful apprenticeship to his profession." Success to the Herald.

GEORGE W. BURT, of Chester, is putting in a large box-culvert a short distance east of the mouth of Lawrence Creek on the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad. The rock used is from the quarries at the mouth of Cabin Creek. Mr. Burt has finished a number of culverts for the same road, at the upper end of Charleston Bottom.

A Convict Camp Burned Out.

The commissary at the convict camp of S. D. Gooch & Co., contractors on the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad, near Augusta, was burned to the ground at 4 o'clock Saturday morning, caused by the explosion of a lamp. There were stored in the building clothing, vegetables and all the camp's goods. Loss, $1,200; no insurance.

Till Tapped.

Charles Shepard's restaurant, near the depot, was entered some time last Saturday night and robbed of thirty-five or forty dollars in cash and a quart of whisky. The party or parties effected an entrance from the rear into the dining room, and thence into the restaurant. The money-drawer was forced open with a piece of iron or steel, and the cash taken. The exact amount is not known. The burglars were evidently well acquainted with the premises, as they had but little trouble in effecting an entrance. Mr. Shepard was absent at Cincinnati at the time, and probably was not aware of his loss till this morning. The matter is being investigated by Marshal Hedfin, and the guilty party or parties will, no doubt, soon be known.

Narrow Escape From Drowning.

Henry Bartley, who has charge of some coal boats at the lower landing, went out to see the officers of the tow-boat, Hornet No. 2, on business while that steamer was passing up yesterday morning with a tow of empties. Rosenkrantz Gunsall went along. The boat was reached in safety, but while Mr. Bartley was on board talking to the Captain, Gunsall, who was holding on by means of a rope, let the skiff swing around broadside to the current, and the next instant his craft was swamped and he was floundering in the water. He narrowly escaped being struck by the wheel, and would have drowned had not Doc Alexander hurried to his help. Hitching on to tow-boats is a risky undertaking unless you know just how it ought to be done, and even then there's no fun in it.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Choice seed and table potatoes, cheap, at G. W. Geisel's.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity."

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, Asthma, croup and every affection of throat, chest and lungs. Trial bottles free (Large size $1.00) at the Drug Stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall St., New York.

TO LADIES

—WHO—

WEAR FINE SHOES:

We have received a line of French Kid Hand-made Button which is superior to any ever sold by us before. The material is strictly first-class and selected with great care. They fit as perfectly as a kid glove. They require no breaking in, but are as comfortable when first worn as an old shoe. To ladies who have tender feet and who have had difficulty in securing a neat-fitting shoe, we can recommend these as being especially desirable.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

SPECIAL REPORT TO R. G. DUN & CO., OF NEW YORK.

Interstate Commerce Law Affecting Business Unfavorably—Uncertainty in the Stock Market—Advance in Cotton—Business Failures for the Week.

New York, March 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say: It is becoming more generally realized that the interstate commerce bill is for the time affecting business unfavorably. In some branches, as in the movement of dry goods to the West, a temporary flurry of greater activity results from the desire to transport before the coming change of rates. But in other trades the uncertainty as to future rates produces almost a paralysis, which is rendered more serious in the iron business by the question whether railway building and repairing may not be checked. Many vaguely look for a better understanding of the act when the commissioners are announced, but the commissioners will have to await the decision of many courts before they can know what powers they have. Hence, it can hardly be hoped that uncertainty regarding the effects of the act will soon be removed.

Probably the great Baltimore & Ohio negotiations which causes hesitation in the stock market, results from the passage of this act. Mr. Sully does not seem to have succeeded, but it is generally believed that some important consolidation of interests may be effected which may have important influence on the future value of securities. Other events have rather favored prices on the whole. European purchases are again of some magnitude, and the danger of monetary pressure this spring seems less, unless it should come through determined effort of individuals, but the state of bank reserves renders such an operation entirely possible. Foreign exchange has declined; lower prices of products help to make exports large, and the Bank of England gains rapidly in specie.

Wheat declined about three cents, but is now recovering. Corn has fallen about one and a half cents; oil has remained without important change, and lard has declined nearly half a cent. Cotton, on the contrary, has advanced to ten cents, with large exports, but it is thought speculative holders have embraced the opportunity to unload. Wheat exports for half of March have been about 5,700,000 bushels, including flour. But with 73,000,000 bushels surplus from the last crop year, the stock in excess of this year's home demand, and 104,000,000 bushels already exported, still is more than 90,000,000 bushels. An advance in wheat rates to eighteen cents from Minneapolis to Chicago, by the Northwestern pool, instead of seven and one-half cents, threatens to affect Chicago markets.

It is now definitely settled that wool, instead of advancing with foreign prices, has been forced down by the dullness in goods. Stocks on hand are ample, and there is no fear of a short clip, but growers still hold expectation of higher prices. No change is noted in woolen goods. Distribution of cottons is more active as the change in freight rates draws near, but prices are only firm, and print clothes decline a shade. A better feeling is noted in boots and shoes, many producers being pressed to meet March deliveries, and the Massachusetts shoe steadily increase their supply of labor. India rubber advances, with sales of para at eighty-one cents; the demand for goods is excellent in New England, but less satisfactory at the west.

Another bond call is promised but will hardly affect the money market, as only $3,000,000 bonds have been offered under the open call. Redemption of trade dollars, thus far $303,983, is far below expectations, indicating that current estimates were exaggerated. Silver receipts at New York rose to 13 per cent. of total custom house receipts, but the government has taken in $1,700,000 gold and put out $2,200,000 silver certificates during the past week. The demand for money is active, but the supply adequate at Chicago and St. Louis. Rulings of the new bank examiner occasion some irritation, as a number of banks report less than the required ratio of reserves. It is presumed, however, that the change in the policy of the department will not be so hasty as to create any disturbance.

Business failures for the last seven days for the United States 187, Canada 33, total 220; against 282 last week.

The Northwestern Floods.
BISMARCK, Dak., March 21.—The ice gorge at Washburn, sixty miles above, has broken and a terrible flood is coming down the Missouri. The ice at Fort Buford has gone out with a rise of thirty feet, the highest ever known. Mandan is submerged to the second story windows, and thousands of acres are under water. The flood has already washed away over $30,000 worth of property and the worst is to come. The Northern Pacific warehouse here has been washed away. Loss $1,500. The water is now in the second story of houses along the river. Several steamers are frozen in below here and their destruction is inevitable. Some loss of life has occurred and many narrow escapes are reported.

New York, March 21.—Capt. Toder, of the Italian steamer Eutela, was arrested today in Brooklyn for carrying an excess of passengers. He was taken before United States Commissioner Shields and held for examination. The steamer plies between New York and Genoa. She had on board 526 passengers and the law only allowed her 470.

Girls Must Talk.
NEWBURGH, N. Y., March 21.—The proprietor of the Whitney basket works, at Marlborough, recently issued an order forbidding the employees to speak during working hours. This morning twenty girls struck against the order and left work in a body, and will not return until the order is rescinded.

The Mother of Twins at Eighty.
CITY OF MEXICO, March 21.—A letter received from a gentleman in Hotun, Yucatan, tells about an Indian woman named Petrona Chia, who is eighty years of age, and last week gave birth to twins. This is said to be the most extreme case of the kind on record.

Burglary at Leesburg.
LEESBURG, O., March 21.—Burglars entered the dry goods house of L. F. King and carried off goods to the value of $100. No clue.

The Cleveland newspapers have distributed a collection of $2,055 to Capt. Hoehn and $4,350 to the family of Detective Hurligan, who was killed by the ruffians at Ravenna.

Joseph Roy, of Merrill, Wis., has been appointed chief clerk in the postoffice department at Washington, in place of Mr. Nash, made superintendent of the railway mail service.

At Troy, Tenn., a masked mob broke into the jail and compelled the jailer to produce William Hardy, a mulatto, charged with the murder of a white man last fall, and hanged him to a tree.

The latest presumably definite information relative to the Baltimore & Ohio sale is, that the Ives-Stayner syndicate have paid $500,000 of the first million of the purchase money and will advance the second $500,000 in a couple of days.

The scene of the late Bald Knobbers' excitement in Missouri was thrown into a paroxysm of terror last night by continued and rapid firing near Ozark, where the prisoners are confined. The supposed rescuing party was nothing but a harmless charivari.

The Canadian government has received from the United States authorities a requisition for the extradition of Francesco Trinarco, an Italian, who murdered a fellow-countryman in Chicago about a month ago. Trinarco was arrested in Winnipeg a short time ago, and is now in jail there.

The arrest of a priest named Keller, in Dublin, Ireland, charged with conspiracy, has created a profound sensation. The house of commons denounced the arrest as an outrage. Keller was trustee for some religious tenants. Archbishop Croke says the Tories are endeavoring to crush the priesthood by coercive measures in Ireland.

The Weather.
WASHINGTON, March 21.—Indications.—Fair weather, warmer, northerly winds, becoming variable.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations of the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Market for March 19.

New York—Money 4 per cent. Exchange steady. Government firm.

Currency sixes, 125½ bid; four coupons, 123½; four-and-a-halves, 108½ bid.

The stock market opened dull at a decline of ½ to ¾ per cent., and during the first hour very little business was transacted. After 11 o'clock the announcement was made that the directors of the Chicago & Northwestern road would declare a semi-annual dividend on the common stock at their April meeting. This imparted a firmer tone to speculation, and on a moderate buying prices advanced ½ to 1 per cent. from the bottom figures.

GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP

OF WILD CHERRY, TAR, GLYCERINE, ETC.

WILL CURE CONSUMPTION,

and is the best remedy for the cure of all affections of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, such as Consumption, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, and all Pulmonary Diseases.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

WE have the gratifying fact to know that it can be cured with GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP. A curious matter is nothing more than nourishment imperfectly organized. Now, if we can procure the organization of this food material so that through the process of electric affinity it may take its place in the system, we can cure the disease. This is just what this Syrup does. It at once stops the progress of the disease by preventing the further supply of tuberculous matter, for while the system is under its influence all nourishment is organized and assimilated. It thus controls Cough, Night Sweats, all other symptoms of Consumption. Consumption is one of the most loathsome and terrible of all diseases, and makes the life of the poor consumptive a hell on earth. Until recently that terrible disease has been considered an affliction beyond the reach of medicine; but a new era in the management of pulmonary diseases seems to be dawning upon the scientific medical world, and since many distinguished physicians have acknowledged that consumption can be cured, few there are who attempt to controvert their opinion. To those singled out as victims to that fatal malady, we offer a remedy sure in its result of bringing back health to their poor weakened frames, and joy to the hearts of their friends.

Consumptives, because all other things fail, believe that MEXICAN SYRUP will. Not a single sufferer need perish if he or she will take GOOCH'S MEXICAN SYRUP in time. A cough is unlike any other symptom of disease. It stands a conspirator, with threatening vice, menacing the health and existence of a vital organ; so commence at once at the first indication of a cough. TRY IT, you who suffer, are convinced. Do you want to be saved from a consumptive's grave? Then make one more trial. The remedy is in the reach of everybody; it only costs 50 cents a bottle. Is your life not worth 50 cents? If so, make one more trial. Is not your life indeed worth one more trial? Test the truth of our words, only by one single bottle; and never give way to despair till you are certain there is no hope. It has cured thousands, and it will cure you. As we would plaid with a friend to save him from taking his own life, we plead with you to save yourselves from a premature grave. We positively guarantee a perceptible and continuous improvement when the medicine is faithfully and persistently used.

PREPARED BY THE CINCINNATI DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., 54 Main St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

If not on sale at nearest dealer, will send two bottles, post paid, on receipt of $1.00.
